

Sl. No	Title	Description	View/Download	Session
1	Celebration of Independence Day And song Competition	Celebration of Independence Day And song Competition organized among by NSS volunteers dt-15-8-17	Hindol College, Khajuriakata National Service Scheme (2017-18)s Celebration of Independence day Report Independence day celebrated by NSS unit of our college on 15 august 2017 and it is organized by our principal Dr Asit Kumar Jenamani. Among them, NSS programme officer Dr Sasadhara Biswal and Mamata Pal and other college staff were present in this event and 50 NSS volunteers were participated in this programme. The principal was the chief guest of the programme. He hoisted the national flag on the college sharp at 8:00 am. All the students and teachers saluted the flag and sang the National Anthem with nobody move honoring it. Then followed the cultural programme. Then followed the cultural. In this event, song competition is organized among the NSS volunteers on patriotic songs. Sukanta Pati and Nirmal Chandra Panigrahi are joined this programme as judge and chief guest. Some students also presented the group dance and skits 	2017-18

2	Classroom And Campus Cleaning	Classroom And Campus Cleaning organized by NSS unit dt-21-8-2017	Hindol College, Khajuriakata National Service Scheme (2017-18) Classroom And Campus Cleaning Report Campus cleaning was observed in the month of august 21, 2017 at the Hindol College. A total of 46 NSS volunteers participated in this programme, NSS programme officers Dr. Sasdhara Biswal and Mamata Pal were drive this programme. This programme is initiated under the guidance of the principal Dr. Asit Kumar Jenamani. He motivated the students towards “clean-india” by his inspirational talk. Also Sibaprasad Das, Assistant professor of zoology of this college joined as a chief guest. He delivered talks to volunteers on the importance of cleanliness starting from one homes to the entire country. The NSS volunteers cleaned the entire campus wearing gloves and collected all the litter in the big bags for disposal. The volunteers were instructed to clean their hands with soap at the end. Refreshment were distributed to volunteers. Programme officer Mamata Pal and Dr. Sasadhar Biswal carried out all the arrangements along with the programme coordinator Murali Kishore Jenamani for the smooth conduct of the programme. 	2017-18
---	-------------------------------	--	---	---------

3

Plantation of Palm trees

Plantation of Palm trees by NSS volunteers dt-8-9-2017

Hindol College, Khajuriakata
National Service Scheme (2017-18)
Report on Plantation of Palm trees

2017-18

A Plantation of Palm trees programme organized by NSS unit on 8 september, 2017 in our College campus and in this programme 48 volunteers were participated. This programme is drive under the guidance of NSS programme officers Dr. Sasadhara Biswal and Mrs. Mamata Pal. Principal Dr. Asit kumar Jenamani inaugurate this programme and Dr. Sasadhara Biswal joined as chief guest. In this programme at most 100 palm tree were planted in the around the college field by the NSS volunteers.

4	Celebration of Gandhi Jayanti And a Debate on the Father of Nation	Celebration of Gandhi Jayanti And a Debate on the Father of Nation by NSS volunteers dt-12-9-2017	Hindol College, Khajuriakata National Service Scheme (2017-18) Report on Celebration of Gandhi Jayanti The programme featuring a state-level NSS camp and NSS inter-collegiate competitions, based on the life and times of Mahatma Gandhi. An exhibition, showcasing the rarest and largest collection of Gandhi memorabilia - including soil from the spot he was assassinated - was the highlight of the event. Under the 'Save the Weavers' programme, products from flood-affected Chendamangalam was put up for sale by NSS volunteers. The Principal Dr. Asit Kumar Jenamani inaugurated the Swachhta Hi Seva programmes and flagged off a cycle rally at 7 am on 12 Sept 2017. In his keynote address, 'Cleanliness is next to Godliness', he recalled his days at Hindol College as an NSS programme officer and how he realised the beauty of social service through his experience. He asked students to inculcate the philosophy of cleanliness and service as a life philosophy. Dr Sasadhara Biswal and Mamata Pal, NSS programme officers, led a team of 48 volunteers in planting flowering plants in the college garden cleaning the entire college campus wearing gloves and	2017-18 collected all the litter in the big bags for disposal. The volunteers were instructed to clean their hands with soap at the end. Refreshment were distributed to volunteers.

5

Gardening , Campus Cleaning and Watering of Plants

Gardening , Campus Cleaning and Watering of Plants organized by NSS volunteers dt-9-10-2017

Hindol College, Khajuriakata
National Service Scheme (2017-18)
Gardening, Classroom And Campus Cleaning Report

Campus cleaning was observed in the month of October 9, the entire campus wearing gloves and collected all the litter in the big bags for disposal. The volunteers were instructed to clean their hands with soap at the end. Refreshment were distributed to volunteers. Programme officer Mamata Pal and Dr. Sasadhar Biswal carried out all the arrangements along with the programme coordinator Murali Kishore Jenamani for the smooth conduct of the programme. 2017 at the Hindol College. A total of 46 NSS volunteers participated in this programme, NSS programme officers Dr. Sasdhara Biswal and Mamata Pal were drive this programme. This programme is initiated under the guidance of the principal Dr. Asit Kumar Jenamani. He motivated the students towards “clean-india” by his inspirational talk. Also Sibaprasad Das, Assistant professor of zoology of this college joined as a chief guest. He delivered talks to volunteers on the importance of cleanliness starting from ones homes to the entire country.

The NSS volunteers cleaned the entire campus wearing gloves and collected all the litter in the big bags for disposal. The volunteers were instructed to clean their hands with soap at the end. Refreshment were distributed to volunteers. Programme officer Mamata Pal and Dr. Sasadhar Biswal carried out all the arrangements along with the programme coordinator Murali Kishore Jenamani for the smooth conduct of the programme.

6

Quiz
Competiti on and Campus
Cleaning

Quiz
Competitio n and Campus
Cleaning organized by NSS
unit dt-7-11-2017

Hindol College, Khajuriakata
National Service Scheme (2017-18)
Quiz competition And Campus Cleaning Report

Campus cleaning was observed in the month of November 7, 2017 at the Hindol College. A total of 46 NSS volunteers participated in this programme, NSS programme officers Dr. Sasdhara Biswal and Mamata Pal were drive this programme. This programme is initiated under the guidance of the principal Dr. Asit Kumar Jenamani. He motivated the students towards “clean-india” by his inspirational talk. Also Sibaprasad Das, Assistant professor of zoology of this college joined as a chief guest. He delivered talks to volunteers on the importance of cleanliness starting from one homes to the entire country.

The NSS volunteers cleaned the entire campus wearing gloves and collected all the litter in the big bags for disposal. The volunteers were instructed to clean their hands with soap at the end. Refreshment were distributed to volunteers. Programme officer Mamata Pal and Dr. Sasadhar Biswal carried out all the arrangements along with the programme coordinator Murali Kishore Jenamani for the smooth conduct of the programme.

